PERSONAL AND SOCIETY.

The inclement weather of the past week has not been conducive to comfort, but the rain and dull sky have made the homes seem all the more beautiful, with their tasteful floral embellishments. Mrs. David Swain gave a pretty reception, Wednesday afternoon, from 2 till 6 o'clock, at which all the decorations and favors were chrysanthemums. The same day there were several weddings at Mayflower Church. At 10 o'clock, Miss Lavina Conner was married o'c to Mr. H. L. Whitehead. Miss Mary Woodall was married to Mr. William H. Schomberg, at the bride's home, No. 247 North Delaware street. In the evening, at Central-avenue Church, Miss Minnie Henley was married to Dr. Morris Drake, of Shelbyville. Small companies have been given by Mrs. H. B. Smith, for Mrs. Drake, of Kansas City; by Mrs. Dell Benson for Miss Lucy Semple, of Denver, and by Dr. and Mrs. O. G. Pfaff, for Miss Moore, of Lima, O., and Miss Black, of Anderson. The club dances and literary proceedings have occurred as usual, and altogether society has not been dull, though there have been no brilliant parties.

Quite a number of the churches are preparing for fairs to be held the last of the month. Fairs used to be occasional, new they are annual. While the work is confined to the church giving it, the patrons are from any or no denomination. The ladies ask their friends to come and they generally accept. Now that Christmas begins to loom up in the near future, fancy work is in great demand for presents, and as nearly every piece is more than worth the price asked for it, it meets with a ready sale. The Mænnerchor ladies are deeply interested in the fair they have on hand for the last week of this month, and soon after them will come the Flower Mission ladies with their "Fete Breton" fair and Kirmess. This month is the time for liberal donations and generous purchases.
